CAREER HONORS

• 2023-24 All-Atlantic Coast Conference Honorable Mention

GEORGIA TECH (2021-24)

One of the top transfers in the country ... Played in 95 career games with 60 starts for the Yellow Jackets ... 2024 All-Atlantic Coast Conference honorable mention selection ... Team's leading scorer averaging 13.9 points per game as a junior ... Was also second in rebounding (5.5 rpg) and reached double figures in 24 contests including a career-high 36 points at Louisville (2/10/24), 25 points at Miami (2/24/24) and 25 points versus Notre Dame (1/9/24) ... Sharpshooter from long range who also played some point and developed into a consistently productive scorer at Georgia Tech ... Connected on 35 percent of his 3-point shots and 78.6 percent of his free throws through the course of his career ... Recorded four double-double performances including 22 points and career-best 12 rebounds versus Mississippi State (11/28/23) ... Registered his 1,000th career point against Clemson (2/21/24) ... Ranks 43rd on the Yellow Jackets' all-time career scoring chart with 1,057 points ... His 184 career 3-point field goals made ranks ninth most in program history ... Drained a career-high seven treys at Syracuse (2/28/23), versus Notre Dame (1/9/24) and at Miami (2/24/24).

HIGH SCHOOL

Consensus four-star recruit from the Atlanta area ... Ranked No. 87 by 247Sports (No. 22 among shooting guards) and No. 94 overall by Rivals (No. 24 by position) ... Played his first three years under head coach John Collins at Parkview High School in Lilburn, Ga., before transferring to Hargrave Military Academy to play for head coach Thomas Messinger his senior year ... 2021 McDonald's All-American Game nominee ... Averaged 17.3 points and 3.4 three-pointers made per game ... Team's second-leading scorer and second-best 3-point shooter (46.1%) ... Led the Tigers in deflections with 7.1 per contest ... Helped lead No. 2-seeded Hargrave to a 31-1 overall record falling only to DME Academy in the opening round of the National Prep Championship ... Joined an exclusive fraternity of basketball players eclipsing the 1,000-career point milestone scoring a team-high 27 points in a win over Hosanna College (2/23/21) ... Was a member of a Tiger squad that averaged more points per game (114.3) than any other Hargrave team on record ... During his junior campaign at Parkview, averaged 19.1 points, 5.8 rebounds and 2.0 steals per game ... Named all-county second team ... Did not play varsity basketball as a freshman ... Honor Roll and Dean's List student at both schools.

PERSONAL

Son of Sheila Kelly ... Born on Jan. 26, 2003 ... Has one older sister, Myla ... Enrolled in the Harbert College of Business.

- 2008 Adolph Rupp Cup Award recipient
- 2006 Sporting News Coach of the Year
- 1995 NABC Division II Coach of the Year
- 1995 NCAA Division II National Championship

One of the most prominent men's basketball coaches in the country, he currently ranks No. 12 among active NCAA Division I head coaches in career wins (662) and No. 46 all-time (two wins behind John Wooden).

He has guided the Tigers to 200 wins in 10 seasons, the program's first-ever No. 1 ranking in both national polls and a memorable run to the NCAA Final Four in 2019.

Pearl is 14 wins away from becoming the all-time winningest coach in program history (13 wins away to tie Joel Eaves for the distinction).

Pearl has won the sixth-most SEC Men's Basketball Championships (4) in conference history and ranks among the Top 5 all-time SEC coaches in overall victories (345) behind Adolph Rupp (876), Billy Donovan (467), Dale Brown (448) and John Calipari (410).

His accomplishments also include two Southeastern Conference regular-season championships, two SEC Tournament championship and five NCAA Tournament berths with the Tigers.

Last season, Auburn compiled a 27-8 overall record which marked the fourth-most wins in school history. The Tigers claimed the SEC Tournament Championship title and league's automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament by defeating South Carolina, Mississippi State and Florida. They also finished the season with the highest NCAA NET/RPI ranking (No. 5) in program history.

Johni Broome became the 14th player in school history to be honored as an All-American, after being tabbed SEC Tournament Most Valuable Player, All-SEC First Team and a Naismith Defensive Player of the Year Award semifinalist.

In 2021-22, Auburn posted a 28-6 overall record - the third-most wins in school history, turned in the program's first-ever undefeated season at home at Neville Arena (16-0) and earned a No. 2 seed in the NCAA Tournament.

The Tigers finished the historic campaign ranked No. 8 in the final Associated Press Poll and No. 14 in the final USA TODAY/Coaches Poll. They also finished No. 13 overall in the final NCAA Men's Basketball NET Rankings.

The postseason saw two of its very own drafted in the NBA First Round with All-American Jabari Smith being selected No. 3 overall by the Houston Rockets and All-American Walker Kessler selected No. 22 overall by the Memphis Grizzlies (traded to Minnesota Timberwolves and Utah Jazz).

Smith took home National Freshman of the Year honors, while Kessler was tabbed National Defensive Player of the Year. Both joined Chuma Okeke (No. 16 overall in 2019), Isaac Okoro (No. 5 overall in 2020), JT Thor (No. 37 overall in 2021) and Sharife Cooper (No. 48 overall in 2021) as Tigers drafted into the NBA and developed by Pearl and his coaching staff.

Off-the-court, Auburn was one of six NCAA Division I men's basketball programs to finish in the Top 25 of the Final Associated Press Top 25 Poll and achieve a 3.0 or higher team grade-point average during the 2021-22 season.

The Tigers were among nine schools to sell out all of its home games during the 2021-22 season.

Since he arrived at Auburn for the 2014-15 season, Pearl has produced one of the biggest turnarounds in the college basketball landscape. Prior to his arrival, Auburn has an average RPI of 191.8.

In the past five seasons, the Tigers finished their campaign 16th, 13th, 27th, 11th and 5th respectively in the final NET Rankings/RPI.

His teams have been just as successful off the court as Auburn has had 40 graduates since 2014 – the most in the SEC.

The 2018-19 season was arguably the greatest season in Auburn basketball history. The Tigers won 30 games for the first time ever en route to becoming the first team from the state of Alabama to reach the Final Four.

During Auburn's historic March Madness run in the 2018-19 season, the Tigers became the first team ever to knock off the three winningest programs in college basketball history in succession – Kansas, North Carolina and Kentucky.

In 29 seasons as a head coach, he has guided his teams to the NCAA Tournament 22 times (would have been 22 if not for the cancelation of 2020 season) and a 662-264 (.715) winning record.

history to lead two programs to a No. 1 national ranking (Auburn in 2022 and Tennessee in 2008).

Additionally, he is just one of three head coaches to take four programs (three at the Division I level) to the Sweet 16, joining Lon Kruger and Eddie Sutton.

Pearl became the 21st fastest coach to 500 wins in his 691st game in Auburn's 78-74 win over LSU on Jan. 19, 2017. He reached the historic mark between a pair of Hall of Famers, just behind Lute Olson and ahead of Nolan Richardson.

Pearl's impact is also continually felt in the community. When he isn't out buying lunch for students on campus or dropping into Auburn sports reporting classes, he can be found spreading the word of Auburn basketball at Auburn Alumni events throughout the Southeast. And if he isn't there, there is a good chance he is in the stands supporting one of the other Auburn programs.

Pearl and his wife, Brandy, also remain committed to giving back to those in Alabama as they have raised over $1 million in only five golf tournaments at Auburn for Children's Harbor in Birmingham, benefitting children with serious illnesses and their families.

Pearl started AUTLIVE at Auburn in 2015-16 to benefit cancer patients in the fight to beat cancer. AUTLIVE raises the awareness of cancer prevention and detection white t-shirt sales in 2016, orange t-shirt sales in 2017 and blue t-shirt sales in 2018 along with donations raise money to benefit cancer patients.

An ambassador for the university, Pearl's selfless community service work and generous stewardship made him one of the most influential public figures in the states of Alabama and Tennessee.

He was given the "Spirit of Auburn" Award in the spring of 2015 and was named "Knoxvillian of the Year" by Knoxville Metro Pulse in 2008 and also received the prestigious "Knoxville Award" in 2010. The UT basketball program also earned the UT Men's Community Outreach Team Award twice in his six seasons.

Pearl realized a lifelong dream in the summer of 2008 when his country called upon him to serve as head coach of Maccabi USA's open men's basketball team at the 18th World Maccabiah Games in Israel. He led the American squad to the gold medal for just the third time in 24 years, toppling favored Israel in the title game.

His 28 years of coaching experience covers four stops. Pearl began his head coaching career with a nine-year stay at Southern Indiana, taking the program to the NCAA Tournament each season, going 231-46 (.834) from 1992-2001.

From there he made the move to Wisconsin-Milwaukee, taking the Panthers to the NIT once and the NCAA Tournament twice, including a 2005 Sweet 16 appearance.

After compiling an 86-38 (.694) record at Milwaukee, Tennessee tabbed him as its leader in 2005 and he responded by taking the program to six straight NCAA Tournament appearances, two Sweet Sixteens (2007, 2008) and the 2010 Elite Eight, which was the most successful six-year run in Volunteers history.

But Pearl's first break came during his undergraduate career at BC when Davis offered him a position of student assistant in 1978. In 1981, the Eagles won the Big East Conference championship and reached the Sweet Sixteen of the NCAA Tournament. The following season, BC advanced to the Elite Eight.

When Davis moved on to Stanford in 1982, Pearl joined his staff as an assistant coach and then, at the age of 23, was promoted to associate head coach for the Cardinal. While in Palo Alto, Calif., they ended a streak of 20 consecutive losing seasons with a 19-12 overall record in 1983-84, laying the groundwork for a resurgence in Stanford Basketball.

During that time, they recruited four players who were drafted by the NBA, including Todd Lichti, who finished his career as Stanford's all-time leading scorer with 2,336 career points.

After four seasons on the West Coast, Pearl followed Davis to Iowa in 1986. Over the course of the next six seasons, the Hawkeyes received five NCAA Tournament berths while compiling a 129-63 overall record. In 1987, the Hawkeyes recorded a 30-5 mark and advanced to the Elite Eight before falling to UNLV.

And in 1988, Pearl was recognized as one of the top Division I assistants in the country by Basketball Weekly while helping direct the Hawkeyes to the Sweet 16.

His six seasons in Iowa City helped produce 11 NBA draft picks for the Hawkeyes, including Brad Lohaus, Kevin Gamble, B.J. Armstrong, Roy Marble and Acie Earl.

Pearl's first head coaching opportunity came at Southern Indiana, a Division II school located in Evansville, Ind.

A native of Boston, Mass., Pearl received his bachelor's degree in business administration from Boston College in 1982, graduating cum laude. He has two daughters: Jacqui and Leah, two sons: Steven and Michael, and three grandchildren: Chaya, Jaden and Noa Rose.

Pearl is married to the former Brandy Miller of Sevierville, Tenn.

STEVEN PEARL

Associate Head Coach/
Defensive Coordinator
Tennessee '10
11th Season

Steven Pearl was promoted to Associate Head Coach on Aug. 1, 2023. He is in his 11th overall season with the Auburn men's basketball program.

"Steven has been an integral part of the success that we've had at Auburn from the beginning," Head Coach Bruce Pearl said. "Many people may forget that he started as an assistant strength coach and worked his way up through our program. He has been able to recruit and coach at a very high level. His ability to communicate and teach our system to our players is second to none. He is truly one of the best assistant coaches in the country and has earned this promotion."

Named one of the 50 most impactful high-major assistant coaches in NCAA Division I basketball by Silver Waves Media the last two years, Pearl has been instrumental in one of the biggest rebuilds in college basketball under his father's tutelage.

Auburn has won four SEC Championship titles over the last seven years, made five NCAA Tournament appearances – including the Final Four in 2019 – and produced four NBA Draft first-round picks in Chuma Okeke, Isaac Okoro, Jabari Smith and Walker Kessler.

In addition, the Tigers were ranked a program-best No. 1 in the country during the 2021-22 season and ranked a school-record 32-consecutive weeks in The Associated Press Top 25 Poll from Oct. 18, 2021, to Feb. 5, 2023.

His duties on the bench include opponent scouting, defensive strategies and adjustments as well as in-game play calling. Pearl has also played a huge role in the development of Auburn's big men to go along with a fervent recruiting strategy.

During Pearl's time on staff, Auburn has produced and developed six NBA Draft picks and three All-Americans – more pros than the previous two decades. The Tigers have also won more NCAA Tournament games than any SEC program over the last six years.

Auburn has been a hotbed for producing and developing this next-level talent, particularly from the Atlanta area, including the recruitment of current pros Okoro (No. 5 overall pick by the Cleveland Cavaliers in 2020), Kessler (No. 22 overall pick by the Memphis Grizzlies in 2022) and Sharife Cooper (No. 48 overall pick by the Atlanta Hawks in 2021).

Over the last three years, Steven Pearl has taken the lead in transfer portal recruiting, landing some of the top transfers in the country in Kessler, Wendell Green Jr., Johni Broome, Denver Jones, JP Pegues and Miles Kelly. Kessler earned All-America, National Defensive Player of the Year, SEC Defensive Player of the Year and All-SEC First Team honors, while Green Jr. and Broome developed into All-SEC Second Team players last season. Jones is a junior transfer to the squad, who earned a spot on the All-Conference USA First Team.

He served as acting head coach against North Alabama resulting in his first career coaching victory, 70-44, on Dec. 14, 2021 at Neville Arena.

In April of 2022, he also participated in the National Association of Basketball Coaches and Athletic Director U's invitation-only Collegiate Coaching Consortium at the 2022 NCAA Men's Final Four in New Orleans. The consortium brought together rising basketball coaches and Division I athletic directors for a rigorous, multi-day academy, helping those rising coaches prepare for their first head coaching opportunity.

Pearl spent the 2015-16 and 2016-17 seasons as the director of basketball operations after his first year as an assistant strength and conditioning coach. As the director of operations he was in charge of team travel while also helping plan team practices, working with the team's academics and all of the Auburn Basketball Camps.

Pearl was a four-year letterwinner for his father, Bruce Pearl, at Tennessee, playing in 101 games from 2007-11. He helped Tennessee to back-to-back SEC East Championships in 2008 and 2009, with the '08 team winning the league by two games over Kentucky and Mississippi State. He also appeared in the NCAA Tournament each year he was a part of the program with the Volunteers advancing to the Sweet 16 in 2007 and 2008 and the Elite 8 in 2010.

Pearl, who was a three-time member of the SEC Academic Honor Roll, graduated from the University of Tennessee with a degree in marketing and international business in December 2010. He has also taken classes towards a graduate degree.

Following graduation, Pearl was a medical sales representative for Stryker Corp for three years before joining the Auburn staff. He and his wife, Brittany, were married on Aug. 27, 2022.

IRA BOWMAN

Assistant Coach
Penn '96
Seventh Season

Auburn has been ranked in the Top 11 six out of the last seven years since his arrival on The Plains. The Tigers have also gone to a Final Four (2019), won three SEC Championships (2019, 2022 and 2024), put together a consensus Top 5-ranked recruiting class and been ranked No. 1 in the country for the first time ever.

Named one of the Top 5 high major assistant coaches in college basketball by MCA.com, Bowman was integral in the recruitment and development of Jabari Smith (No. 3 draft pick in 2022), Isaac Okoro (No. 5 draft pick in 2020), JT Thor (No. 37 draft pick in 2021) and Sharife Cooper (No. 47 draft pick in 2021). Smith was the 2021-22 squad's leading scorer (16.9 ppg), a consensus first team All-American, National Freshman of the Year and SEC Freshman of the Year.

This past summer, Bowman was also selected to participate in the SEC Opportunity Forum as one of the top assistant coaches in the league.

Coming to Auburn as a fringe Top 40 player, Okoro became the first one-and-done in program history and is an expected Top 10 pick in the 2020 NBA Draft. Okoro became just the sixth player in SEC history to be named to an all-conference team, all-defensive team and all-freshman team in the same season by the league's coaches.

Bowman and the staff signed a consensus Top 10 recruiting class, highlighted by the third highest-rated recruit in program history in five-star Sharife Cooper, the third McDonald's All-American to enroll at Auburn.

In his first season on The Plains, the Tigers set a program record for wins (30), 3-pointers (454), steals (369) and blocks (190) en route to an appearance in the Final Four. Auburn earned its way to the first Final Four by way of defeating the three winningest programs in NCAA history - Kansas, Kentucky and North Carolina - in consecutive games, becoming the first team ever to do so.

Bowman came to Auburn after spending six seasons at the University of Pennsylvania under head coach Steve Donahue. He was instrumental in the recruitment of team's top players and in the on-court development of the Quakers' perimeter players.

During the 2017-18 season, Bowman helped lead Penn to a 24-9 record, an Ivy League title and a return to the NCAA Tournament for the first time in 11 seasons. It was the Quakers' first conference crown since 2006-07. He guided seven all-conference players during his tenure at Penn and helped lead the Quakers to 74 wins.

The Newark, N.J. native arrived at Penn after spending four years at New Jersey Institute of Technology (NJIT), where he assisted in one of the top turnaround jobs in the country. The year before Bowman arrived at NJIT, the Highlanders were winless (0-29), and in his first season, they went 1-30. After that, the Highlanders went 15-15 overall including a 9-3 Great West Conference mark in 2010-11. His final year, NJIT went 15-17 overall and advanced to the Great West Conference championship game.

Before entering the collegiate coaching profession, Bowman spent four years as director of the Assist by Knight Foundation. In addition, he has experience with several aspects of the NBA including serving as an administrator at the NBA's FIBA Tournament in Las Vegas as well as participating in the NBA's Player Development Assistant Coaches Summit in 2007.

Bowman played two years at Penn, the 1994-95 and 1995-96 seasons, after transferring from Providence College. In his first year with the Quakers, Penn went 22-6 overall and 14-0 in Ivy League play en route to its third straight Ancient Eight title. Bowman was Second Team All-Ivy that season.

As a senior, Bowman was the Ivy League Player of the Year and First-Team All-Philadelphia Big 5 as he led the Quakers to a 17-10 record that included a 12-2 mark in Ivy play. In his two seasons at Penn and two campaigns at Providence, Bowman combined for 918 points, 228 assists and 139 steals.

Following his playing days with the Quakers, Bowman enjoyed a professional playing career that included stints with the NBA's Philadelphia 76ers and Atlanta Hawks. He also played overseas in Italy and Australia, as well as the Continental Basketball Association.

Bowman played his high school career at Seton Hall Preparatory School where he was the school's all-time leading scorer. He scored 1,488 points in his three-year varsity career, including 19.6 per game during his senior season when he led the team to a 31-1 record.

He and his wife, Rayna, have one son, Jeremiah.

COREY WILLIAMS

Assistant Coach
Oklahoma State '02
Second Season

Corey Williams, a 23-year coaching veteran and player for the 1993 NBA Champion Chicago Bulls, is in his second year as an assistant men's basketball coach on Head Coach Bruce Pearl's staff.

Williams previously served as an assistant coach the last two seasons at Texas Tech University, including interim head coach. The Red Raiders advanced to the NCAA Sweet 16 and finished the 2021-22 season with a perfect 18-0 record at home for the first time in program history, ranked No. 12 in the final Associated Press Top 25 Poll and No. 1 in the Kenpom.com adjusted defensive efficiency ratings.

Williams is no stranger to the Southeastern Conference having worked as an assistant coach at the University of Arkansas from 2019-21, after six seasons as the head coach at Stetson University from 2013-19.

Williams was a star player at Oklahoma State from 1989-92 and had a lengthy career as a professional player, before embarking on his coaching career. He was a second-round draft pick of the Chicago Bulls and was also selected by the Kansas City Chiefs in the 12th round of the 1992 NFL Draft, despite not having played football since junior high.

At OSU, Williams played point guard for Hall of Fame coach Eddie Sutton and later worked as a student assistant at his alma mater in 1994, serving as a member of the Cowboys' staff during the program's Final Four campaign.

Next to Sutton, Williams has also been mentored by Phil Jackson, Bill Self, Leonard Hamilton and Eric Musselman during his career as a player and assistant coach.

While at Arkansas, Williams helped lead a resurgence where the Razorbacks went 45-19 in his two seasons including a NCAA Elite Eight appearance in 2021. He helped Arkansas land the fifth-best recruiting class in the nation which led to the program advancing to the Elite Eight where its season ended after an 81-72 loss to eventual national champion Baylor. The Razorbacks eliminated Texas Tech with a 68-66 win in the second round to reach the Sweet 16.

During his tenure as head coach at Stetson, several players broke long-standing records as Divine Myles became the program's all-time leading scorer, Angel Rivera set the record for career assists and Luke Doyle established the mark for most career 3-pointers made.

Under William's guidance, Derick Newton earned All-Atlantic Sun Conference honors in 2017 and Brian Pegg was voted as the 2017 ASUN Scholar-Athlete of the Year. The previous year, Stetson reached the ASUN Tournament championship game, marking the program's first tournament finals appearance since 1994.

Prior to taking over the reins at Stetson, Williams spent six seasons as an assistant at Florida State from 2007-13. His career with the Seminoles coincided with the team's resurgence on the national scene. Through Williams' recruiting efforts, the Seminoles developed into one of the best programs in the ACC.

Before joining the Florida State staff, Williams was an assistant coach for seven seasons at Oral Roberts from 2000-07, where he aided the Golden Eagles in achieving an average of 18 wins per season, including 20-or-more wins in each of his last three seasons. ORU captured the Mid-Continent Conference regular-season and tournament titles in 2006 and 2007, advancing to NCAA Tournament play each season.

As a player, Williams finished his time at Oklahoma State ranked eighth on the school's career scoring list with 1,320 points. He led the Cowboys to consecutive NCAA Tournament Sweet 16 appearances under Sutton in 1991 and 1992. The Cowboys were ranked No. 14 in the final Associated Press Poll following the 1991 season and No. 10 in the final Coaches Poll in 1992.

As a rookie in the NBA, Williams was a member of the Michael Jordan-led Bulls as the franchise captured its third-straight NBA title. Following his one season in Chicago, Williams played parts of the next season with the Minnesota Timberwolves and the Oklahoma City Cavalry of the CBA. He also played professionally in Taiwan from 1995-98.

Originally from Macon, Georgia, Williams earned his bachelor's degree in education from Oklahoma State in 2002. He and his wife, Nicole, have two children, Jourdan and Corey Jr. (C.J.).

CHAD PREWETT

Assistant Coach
Troy State '94
11th Season

An accomplished and decorated coach for more than 20 years winning 10 state high school basketball championships, Chad Prewett was elevated to assistant coach on Aug. 2, 2023. He is in his 11th overall season on Head Coach Bruce Pearl's staff.

Since joining the program in June 2014, Prewett has served in a variety of roles including special assistant, interim assistant coach and director of operations.

Auburn has also won four Southeastern Conference championship titles, made five NCAA Tournament appearances, earned its first-ever No. 1 national ranking and turned in the third most wins in school history with a 28-6 overall record in 2021-22 during his time on staff. Two players - Jabari Smith and Walker Kessler - garnered All-America honors and became the program's first-ever National Freshman of the Year and National Defensive Player of the Year respectively. Both were later drafted in the first round of the 2022 NBA Draft (No. 3 and No. 22 overall).

During Auburn's historic run to the Final Four in 2018-19, the Tigers became the only team to defeat Kansas, Kentucky and North Carolina – the three winningest programs in NCAA history – in consecutive games in NCAA Tournament history. The Tigers became the first team from the state of Alabama to reach the Final Four during the 2018-19 season, which also included a Southeastern Conference Tournament crown and a 30-10 record.

Auburn won the 2018 Southeastern Conference title, its third in program history, behind a 26-8 record, including 13-3 in league play. The Tigers also make their ninth NCAA Tournament appearance all-time and defeated College of Charleston in the first round.

While serving as an assistant coach, Prewett primarily worked with the team's guards and played a key role in the development of the All-SEC backcourt of Bryce Brown, Jared Harper and Mustapha Heron. Brown was a Naismith Trophy Top 30 honoree and became the 36th player in program history to reach 1,000 career points.

Prewett also had a hand in scouting opponents and was tasked with running Auburn's zone defense.

He returned to his role as director of basketball operations prior to the 2018-19 season, a role in which he held for a few months following the 2017 season. Prewett earned the promotion following three seasons as the special assistant to Pearl after joining the program in June 2014.

Prewett handles the team's budget and travel, while spearheading numerous fundraising campaigns and events for the basketball program and Coach Pearl.

He is heavily involved with the Pearl's AUTLIVE initiative to benefit cancer patients in the fight to beat cancer as well as the Bruce Pearl Fore the Children Golf Classic and Bruce, Barkley and Basketball Golf Classic. He directs all of the Bruce Pearl Basketball Camps.

Prewett joined the staff following a seven-year run at Lee-Scott Academy, which began in 2007, as both the boys and girls basketball and track coach. He led the varsity boys basketball team to the 2012 AISA State Championship, a runner-up finish in 2011 and the Final Four in 2009 and 2010. Over the years, the Lee-Scott boys teams went 139-31. On the girls side, he led the program to four AISA State Championships (2009, 2011, 2012, 2013), a runner-up finish in 2014 and the Final Four in 2008 and 2010.

Five times he was named the AISA All-Star Game Coach, he was the 2009 AISA Coach of the Year and the OA News Coach of the Year four times (2012 - boys; 2008, 2009, 2011 - girls). He also coached the AISA Track State Champions in 2009, 2010 and 2011.

Prior to Lee-Scott, Prewett was the varsity boys basketball and track coach at Faith Academy in Mobile from 2004-07. He led the boys basketball team to the 2006 AISA State Championship, the 2005 Final Four and was the 2006 AISA All-Star Game Coach and Coach of the Year. He led Faith Academy to a 63-21 record.

Prewett started his coaching career at Escambia Academy. From 1995-2004, he was a coach for the basketball, football, golf and track teams and added the title of athletics director from 1998-2004. Escambia was awarded the AISA Chairman's Award for Outstanding Program in 1998, 1999 and 2000.

Prewett earned his bachelor's degree in health, physical education and recreation from Troy State University in 1994 and a master's degree in foundations of education in 2000. He and his wife, Tonya, have three daughters: Madison (son-in-law Grant Troutt), Mallory and Mary Mykal.

MIKE BURGOMASTER

Assistant Coach/
Offensive Coordinator
Miami '16
Ninth Season

Mike Burgomaster was promoted to assistant coach / offensive coordinator on Aug. 2, 2023, and is in his ninth overall season with the Auburn men's basketball program.

He previously served as assistant director of operations from 2019-21 and recruiting coordinator / assistant to the head coach from 2021-23.

Aside from his coaching duties, Burgomaster is in charge of internal operations, scheduling, on-campus recruiting and scouting/game planning. He also assists Pearl with the team's offense – ranked No. 26 in the country in 2017-18, No. 6 in 2018-19, No. 33 in 2019-20, No. 38 in 2020-21, No. 25 in 2021-22, No. 46 in 2022-03 and No. 10 in 2023-24 – according to Ken Pomeroy's Offense Rankings.

The Tigers are 66-22 overall in games he has helped scout since the 2016-17 season. Auburn has also made five NCAA Tournament appearances, won four SEC Championship titles and produced six NBA Draft picks since his arrival on The Plains.

Prior to joining the staff in a full-time capacity, he was a graduate assistant for the Tigers – a position for which he was recognized as the Managers on A Mission Graduate Assistant of the Year in 2018.

Last season, Auburn compiled a 27-8 overall record which marked the fourth-most wins in school history. The Tigers claimed the SEC Tournament Championship title and league's automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament by defeating South Carolina, Mississippi State and Florida. They also finished the season with the highest NCAA NET/RPI ranking (No. 5) in program history.

The 2017-18 campaign was a banner year for the program as the Tigers won the Southeastern Conference regular-season title behind a 26-8 overall record and 13-5 mark in conference play. The Tigers advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2003 and earned the No. 4 seed in the Midwest Region. They also ended the season ranked No. 19 in the final Associated Press Top 25 Poll for the first time since 2000.

The following year, Burgomaster was a member of the staff during the team's historic run to the NCAA Final Four in 2018-19. This time, the Tigers hoisted the SEC Tournament trophy and set a program record for wins behind a 30-10 record.

Auburn also became the only team to defeat Kansas, Kentucky and North Carolina – the three winningest programs in NCAA history – in consecutive games in NCAA Tournament history. The Tigers would go on to finish the season ranked No. 14 in the final AP Poll.

In 2019-20, Auburn had another banner year going 25-6 overall and finishing second in the SEC. AU became one of four major programs to record three-consecutive 25-win seasons, joining elite company with the likes of Duke, Kansas and Kentucky.

Two years later and after the COVID pandemic season, Auburn once again won the SEC regular-season title, reached the NCAA Tournament, earned the program's first-ever No. 1 national ranking and recorded the third-most wins in school history with a 28-6 overall record in 2021-22. It was Auburn's sixth league crown in program history (1960, 1985, 1999, 2018, 2019 and 2022).

The Tigers finished the season ranked No. 8 in the final AP Poll, the highest since capping the 1998-99 campaign at No. 4. They also had two players drafted in the first round of the 2022 NBA Draft in All-Americans Jabari Smith (No. 3) and Walker Kessler (No. 22).

Prior to Auburn, Burgomaster was a student manager at the University of Miami (Fla.) for three years, before being promoted to head manager in his fourth season. Under head coach Jim Larrañaga, he had a key hand in many areas including player development, video coordination, camps, on-campus recruiting and analytics.

During his tenure, the Hurricanes reached two NCAA Sweet Sixteens in 2013 and 2016 and won both the ACC regular-season and tournament championships in 2013.

A 2016 graduate of the University of Miami, he earned his bachelor's degree in finance and later completed his master's degree coursework in business administration from Auburn University in December of 2017.

MARQUIS DANIELS

Dir. of Player Development
Auburn '03
Seventh Season

A two-time All-Southeastern Conference selection and 10-year NBA veteran, Marquis Daniels is in his seventh overall season on head coach Bruce Pearl's staff.

Daniels served as a graduate assistant during the 2018-19 season, before being promoted to his current role as director of player development the following season.

Since then, he has been a part of three SEC Championship teams (2019, 2022 and 2024), the Tigers' memorable run to the Final Four in 2019 and the program's first-ever No. 1 national ranking in 2022.

Daniels also helped mentor and develop Chuma Okeke, Isaac Okoro, JT Thor, Sharife Cooper, Jabari Smith and Walker Kessler, before all six Tigers were drafted into the NBA.

The two-time SEC Player of the Week selection, who donned an Auburn uniform from 1999-2003, still ranks third in the school record books in career steals (208), 10th all-time in career wins (76) and 11th all-time in career scoring (1,532 points). Daniels tied the school single-season record with 34 double-figure-scoring games in 2002-03, a season in which he also set the Auburn single-season record with 78 steals.

During his senior year, he led the 10th-seeded Tigers to a Sweet 16 appearance, recording game highs of 27 points and nine rebounds to help Auburn erase a double-digit deficit with a chance to knock off eventual national champion Syracuse. It was one of two NCAA Tournament berths during Daniels' time on The Plains.

Named SEC Player of the Year by the Birmingham News, SEC Most Valuable Player by CollegeInsider.com and to the SEC Community Service Team in 2003, he graduated in 3.5 years with a bachelor's degree in sociology and later a master's degree in adult education in 2019.

Daniels was honored as a SEC Men's Basketball Legend in 2017 and inducted into the City of Auburn's Tiger Trail Class of 2022.

A native of Orlando, Florida, he amassed 4,319 career points, 1,552 career rebounds and 509 career steals as a member of the Dallas Mavericks (2003-06), Indiana Pacers (2006-09), Boston Celtics (2009-12) and Milwaukee Bucks (2012-13) combined.

He and his late wife, Shana Askew, a former Auburn women's basketball player, are the proud parents of Syriah, Antwane and Jasmine.

IAN BORDERS

Dir. of Scouting and Recruiting
Louisville '07
Seventh Season

Ian Borders is in his seventh season with the Auburn men's basketball program and serves as Director of Scouting and Recruiting.

He is responsible for cutting and breaking down film of opponents and practices, scouting and facilitating on-campus recruiting and running Bruce Pearl Basketball Camps.

Borders was a part of another banner year as the Tigers cut down the nets as 2024 SEC Tournament champions and compiled a 27-8 overall record, which was the fourth-most wins in program history – the third championship squad he has been a part of since joining the program.

During the 2021-22 season, Auburn won the Southeastern Conference regular-season title, reached the NCAA Tournament, earned the program's first-ever No. 1 national ranking and recorded the third-most wins in school history with a 28-6 overall record.

The Tigers finished the season ranked No. 8 in the final Associated Press poll, the highest since capping the 1998-99 campaign at No. 4. They also had two players drafted in the first round of the 2022 NBA Draft in All-Americans Jabari Smith (No. 3) and Walker Kessler (No. 22).

In his first season on The Plains, Auburn advanced to the 2019 Final Four, won the SEC Tournament and set a program record for wins with a 30-10 record.

During Auburn's historic run to the Final Four, the Tigers became the only team to defeat Kansas, Kentucky and North Carolina - the three winningest programs in NCAA history - in consecutive games in NCAA Tournament history.

In 2019-20, the Tigers had another banner year going 25-6 and finishing second in the SEC. Auburn became one of four major programs to record three consecutive 25-win seasons, joining Duke, Kansas and Kentucky.

Borders started his collegiate coaching career as a graduate assistant at Florida State under head coach Leonard Hamilton from 2015-17. The Seminoles finished second in the Atlantic Coast Conference and ranked as high as No. 7 in the country during his tenure. FSU produced five future NBA players during Borders' time with the Seminoles.

Prior to his time at FSU, Borders was an assistant coach from 2010-15 at South Oldham High School in Crestwood, Ky. Under the direction of head coach Steve Simpson, the team won the regional championship twice, leading to the first two trips to the state tournament in school history.

Borders earned his bachelor's degree from the University of Louisville in 2007. He and his wife, Sarah, have one daughter, Cecilia, and one son, Lennox.
